

Junk

Any form of personal property which is no longer functional or usable for the purpose for which it was intended and includes any appliance, hardware, toy, game, furniture or any other personal property which is not legally stored within a building and which is not fully operable. "Junk" includes any personal property left out of doors for more than twenty-four (24) hours, unless the purpose of such property is for out of door use.