

232A Senior Center

A federal, state, or local government sponsored facility serving the health and social needs of households where at least one individual is 62 years of age or older, but including non-senior individuals with disabilities.