

Water

244.1 Centralized Water Supply System: A utility system serving two or more dwelling units, business, commercial, industrial or other establishments, which is designed and operated to supply potable water, in compliance with County and State health regulations.

244.2 Private Water Supply: A utility system serving only one dwelling unit or a single commercial, business, industrial or other establishment, which is designed and operated to supply potable water, in compliance with County and State health regulations.